

Specialty Subject Faculty

Annick Stark - French Teacher

B.Sc. Science of Education
University of Aix-en-Provence, France
DAEFLE Teaching French as Foreign Language
CNED, France
FLES: French as a Second Language
CNED, France
B.Sc.: Languages and Marketing
University of Aix-en-Provence, France

Annick brings a variety of experience teaching French in both Montessori Schools and Traditional Schools, both Public and Private. Throughout her teaching career, she has traveled and taught in Ghana, Indonesia, Senegal, the United States and Canada. Annick enjoys traveling, literature, and power walking.

Melissa Fellows - Music Teacher

B.A. Music, Vocal Performance
University of Lethbridge

Melissa has been teaching now for over 10 years and loves every minute of it! She is trained in classical voice but enjoys singing any style of music. Melissa runs her own private teaching studio here in Burlington and offers lessons in voice and piano as well as unique summer musical theatre workshops. She enjoys spending time with her new son, Alexander.

Julie Donec - Art Teacher

BFA (in progress), McMaster University, Hamilton
Burlington Cultural Centre - Portraiture
Emily Carr College of Art and Design, second year
Emily Carr College of Art and Design/ Florence, Italy scholarship study program
North Island College, Courtenay, BC- Printmaking

Julie is an accomplished and award winning artist with a number of solo exhibitions and group exhibitions in her career. She has been teaching Art lessons for 15 years, and this is Julie's fourth year teaching in a Montessori setting. Julie enjoys sketching, playing piano, gardening, and traveling.